Please join us to honor the memory of Susan
Sobler with old and new friends.

Susan Sobler was a remarkable woman, a first class educator and a moral compass in the lives of everyone who knew her. In addition to being a wonderful wife, mother, sister and friend, Susan's love of language and excellent communication skills led her to earn her to pursue a career in education.

After years as a Spanish and ESL teacher, Susan became Vice-Principal of Reuben Gittelman Hebrew Day School in 1996. Her love for Jewish culture, her commitment to education, and her deep belief in the potential of young people made her an ideal match with RGHDS. She brought a level of passion and creativity rarely seen, and her sense of humor led her to form long lasting and genuine bonds with her students and co-workers. After she was diagnosed with cancer in 1998, Susan could no longer work full-time, but she stayed in touch with many of the RGHDS students and was always happy to hear from them.

In 2004, Susan lost the long battle she was waging against cancer. The loss of Susan was profound, not only to her adoring family, but to the friends who loved her so much, and the students whom she had helped mould. The death of Susan Sobler left a hole in the heart of our community, one that she would surely want us to fill with social action, charity, laughter, and love for one another.
