

Sussex County Community College is dedicated to lifelong learning and community enrichment. As a responsive and vibrant college, SCCC is committed to providing a supportive, caring environment that promotes academic excellence, economic development, attainment of career and educational goals, and personal and cultural enrichment for its diverse constituencies.

The Foundation for Sussex County Community College enhances the College's mission of providing educational excellence and cultural opportunities to the residents of Sussex County and beyond. The Foundation supports this mission through fund-raising and friend-raising efforts on the College's behalf. Funds are generated through annual giving campaigns, special events and direct contributions. The funds raised support student scholarships, infrastructure and expansion.

One runner/walker per form please!

Schedule: 8:30 am – Fun Run
9:00 am – 5K Run/Walk

Course: Don't miss out on this scenic and challenging USATF certified course. Runners and walkers should expect a hilly, mostly shaded, traffic-free course that winds through the beautiful and serene SCCC Campus. Enjoy early fall foliage, our beautiful campus and one of the best supported runs in the area. Clocks will be at each mile, water station and refreshments at the start/finish.

Awards: Given to 1, 2, 3 overall male and female 5K Runners. Additional awards given by 5 year age groups 7-70 +, and first place M/F SCCC Students.

Amenities: Refreshments • Prizes
Runners will receive goody bags and T-shirts while supplies last! Timing by Best Racing Systems.

Stick around campus after the race and enjoy the 2nd Annual Emergency Services Expo, a great event for the whole family. Hands-on activities and demonstrations by local, county and state emergency service units.

- Helicopter water drop
- Tour fire safety trailers
- Try operating a pressure water line...and much more!
