DRIVE SMART. SAVE A LIFE.

Nikhil Badlani, an 11-year old West Orange resident died on June 11, 2011, when a driver ran a STOP sign at a local intersection in South Orange, NJ. Nikhil was passionate about music, a straight A-student and an avid reader. The family of Nikhil has set up a foundation to honor his memory and spread the message that STOP means stop!

OUR MISSION

The mission of The Nikhil Badlani Foundation is to expand and enhance the lives of underserved children in West Orange, New Jersey, and neighboring communities through individualized lessons for talented musicians, college scholarships for academically achieving graduating seniors, and traffic safety awareness and education for all.

ANNUAL STOP FOR NIKHIL RUN/WALK

The 3rd Annual STOP for Nikhil Run/Walk is on Sunday, September 22, 2013. The focus of the run/walk is to raise traffic safety awareness. Our hope is to have more people attend the event and pledge to drive safely.
